LEVI MYERS KILLED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Aged Lincoln Farmer Thrown From Buggy When Horse Scares At Collision With Another Buggy

The entire community was inexpressibly shocked by a runaway accident Sunday afternoon as a result of which the aged Mr. Levi Myers, one of the best known of the older citizens of the county, died at the home of his son, Mat Myers on the Hustonville pike Tuesday. Mrs. Myers was badly bruised up when she was also thrown from the buggy in which the couple were riding, but it is not believed that her injuries will prove fatal, though quite serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers were returning from a visit to relatives in the West End, about three o'clock Sunday afternoon and it was near the pike tunnel under the Queen & Crescent tracks on the Hustonville road that the dreadful affair occurred. Mr. Jake Myers, son of the deceased was driving in front of his father and mother, when a rig, being driven by several young people of the West End, passed him. It is believed that the occupants of this vehicle did not see the buggy of the elder Mr. and Mrs. Myers, directly behind that of Jake Myers, for they turned into the roadway again after passing the first rig, and crashed full into the horse and vehicle being driven by the couple behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers were driving a young horse, which instantly bolted, and breaking the cross bar, overturned the buggy and hurled the occupants to the ground. Mr. Myers is believed to have been dragged for some distance as the horse ran. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and both he and Mrs. Myers were immediately taken to their home and physicians summoned.

An examination showed that several of Mr. Myers' ribs were broken, one of them puncturing a lung; and he was otherwise seriously injured. Mr. Myers was 87 years of age and had little strength to combat such serious injuries. After lingering until Tuesday, the Great Physician Himself took charge of his case and he passed over the river, freed from all suffering and woe.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of his son, Mr. Mat Myers on Wednesday morning and were attended by a large number of friends and loved ones, for he was one of the best known farmers in the West End of the county and generally esteemed and beloved. The services were short and impressive conducted by Rev. J. J. Dickey, of the Methodist church.

BIG BARN BURNS.

And Will McCormack's Loss Is About $2,800 With No Insurance.

The large barn on the farm of Will McCormack, in the McCormack's church neighborhood burned down at midnight Monday night. The barn contained a large quantity of hay and was a total loss. The loss will amount to about $2,800 which hits Mr. McCormack pretty hard, as he had no insurance on either the barn or its contents.

It is not known how the fire originated. The alarm was given in town when the great blaze was seen to the west, and Roy Stuart made a run with the hose reel, but soon found the fire was too far in the country for any assistance to be given.

You are always safe from any loss by fire when you have insurance with J. D. Wearen, the Insurance Man, of Stanford.

(Danville Advocate.)

Judge E. C. O'Rear, candidate for Governor, and Col. Tarlton, candidate for railroad commissioner, attended a Danville gentleman, attended the Harrodsburg Colored Fair Thursday afternoon and Judge O'Rear spoke to those present after being introduced by Joe Young, colored and one of the right-hand bowlers of Auditor Frank P. James.

Judge O'Rear and Col. Tarlton did not let their presence be known to the white republicans, judging by outside indications, but slipped in and out, driving from Burgin and returning to that point to take the train. Our informant states that after Judge O'Rear had spoken, since all the negro voters except 19 had left the grandstand and many of them were riding on the Flying Dutchman. The actual count was made. Of the nineteen, six were old men and had fallen asleep under the shade, Clay county, gave birth to four children Sunday morning. Two are alive and doing well and so is the mother.

Seven persons were killed and several were injured by the storm at Charleston Sunday. The property damage is estimated at over $100,000. Beaumont and Port Royal are cut off from communication. The damage at Savannah was not so heavy as was first reported.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the National House of Representatives at Quincy, Ill., replied emphatically to President Taft's tariff speech, delivered at Hamilton, Mass., last Saturday. In a signed interview, the Speaker accused the President of not stating facts. He said he did not reply for the insurgent Republicans, who "no doubt will take up the cudgels in their own behalf."

Congressman Ben Johnson, of Kentucky, Wednesday gained the distinction of being the first Congressman that ever attempted an airplane flight. He ascended in the air over 600 feet with Lieut. Harry Arnold during a high wind. The machine narrowly escaped turning topsy-turvy several times during the 20 minutes the occupants were riding puffs of wind.

J. B. SARTAIN.

Succeeds J. A. Allen as Methodist Superintendent—Resolutions

At the recent quarterly conference of the Methodist church held here J. B. Sartain was elected to succeed J. A. Allen, who has served in that capacity for many years. The following resolutions were adopted upon the retirement of Mr. Allen:

In consideration of the long and faithful service of Bro. Allen as superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school of Stanford, Ky., resolu-

ed:

1.—That we the officers, teachers and pupils of the Sunday school express our appreciation of this service and assure him of our love and devotion to the cause he has so long and so faithfully supported.

2.—That we shall not love Him less because some one else, takes his place as superintendent, but pledge our loyalty to his chosen successor in every effort to make the Sunday school all he desires it to be.

3.—That we wish for him and his in this life and bounteous harvest from the long faithful seed sowing in the Master's kingdom—and then when this life is over an abundant entrance into the Heavenly home at Sunday school and church, the problem would be solved.

SPLENDID SESSION OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BODY

Lincoln County Association Holds Great Meeting Here—Fine Reports and Papers Read

The Lincoln county Sunday school association convened in the Christian church in Stanford at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, the 28th. A fine audience greeted the speakers of the evening and the exercises were thrilling. People learn to teach as they learn other things, little by little, bungling and awkward at first. All must succeed by hard work. Time must be given to training, as to every important work; unless the teacher is willing to study, he will never succeed.

Perhaps the most startling address made was by W. J. Vaughn, the Bible in the Public Schools. He said in Germany there were three homicides to every million of population annually; in England 16; in Canada 12; in France 13 1/2; in Spain 52; in the United States 129. In all these countries the Bible was taught in the public schools except in the United States. He attributed the difference in these statistics to this fact. He said we have no Bible conscience and never will have until the Bible is taught in our public schools. He said divided Protestantism is to blame for the exclusion of the Bible from our schools.

P. M. McRoberts was elected president and Miss Pauline Hoeker secretary-treasurer for next year, Rev.

Walker and Mrs. Dickey declining to stand for re-election.

It was a great convention. Mr. Vaughn pronounced it one of the best he had ever attended. The music furnished by the church choirs of Stanford and a children's choir, directed by Mrs. J. G. Carpenter and Miss Josephine Carpenter, who presided at the organ, was fine and added much to the interest of the occasion.

To Rev. Walker and Mrs. Dickey was given a standing ovation.

The report of the secretary-treasurer will appear in next issue, also the other county officers.

Wednesday night, the new President, Mr. McRoberts presided. He gave a fine inaugural address, pledging fidelity and asking the co-operation of all the schools of the county.

Mr. V. aheguoun, e to CeW ayp

Mr. Vaughn occupied the platform at the night session and gave marvelous accounts of the results of Sunday school work in certain counties in the mountains of Kentucky.

SPLENDID INSTITUTE

Being Held Here This Week By Lincoln County Teachers.

The Lincoln county teachers' institute is being held in the graded school building this week with Profs

Ireland and Robinson as instructors.

Eighty five teachers have been enrolled and most of them have been prompt and regular in attendance and seem to be doing everything possible to make this the most interesting institute ever held in Stanford.

The institute was called to order by Prof. Ireland, Monday and after devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Bruce, "the purpose of the institute" were discussed by Prof. J.

W. Ireland, and Hon. K. S. Alcorn, delivered a splendid address.

Monday afternoon was spent in discussing "professional training",

"the ideal teacher", and "the study of children." Miss Kate Bogle, Prof.

Ireland, Mr. Milton and Virgil Mc-

Mullin, handled these subjects in a very able manner. The teachers also enjoyed the great pleasure of listening to Mr. Wm. Yancey Erwin, recite some of his original poems namely:

"The shades of Daniel Boone," "Kentucky's Best" and "The Big Stick."

Mrs. Erwin is also with him as sales woman for his worthy poems.

Tuesday morning Rev. J. J. Dickey of the M. E. church was kind enough to come up to the institute and give us a nice little talk on the use of the Bible in the public schools. Miss Claudia Eaton discussed "The transition of the student into the teacher-er."

The new course of study sent out by the state board of education was clearly explained by Prof. Ireland.

Mr. Harmon representing the Business University of Bowling

Green, made an excellent practical talk on education and the benefits derived from a commercial course.

Prof. Harmon is a man of charming personality and has contributed much to the life of the institut by his efficient talks on spelling, reading and penmanship. The subject of reading, spelling, writing, arithmetic and grammar have been explained by the members of the institute as in a way that speaks for itself as to their qualification to teach them.

Mr. Harris, of Kentucky Children's Home Society also addressed the teachers, Tuesday, telling them of the conditions of the Kentucky

Children's Home and Dec. 15th was set aside by the teachers as children's home day.

Mr. Vaughn the state Sunday school representative addressed the institute and gave the teachers an

JUDGE O'REAR'S INSINCERITY.

Editor Jim Richardson, of the Glassow Times, who above all of the country editors can cut closer to the bone than any in getting to the meat of a subject, has this to say of Judge O'Rear's "sincerity."

The burden of Judge O'Rear's song is the lack of "sincerity" on the part of the Democrats. He condemns them for putting a "county unit" plank into their platform, because he does not believe they were "sincere" when they did it. The popular definition of the word "sincere" is to be in earnest. It does not lie in Judge O'Rear's mouth to truthfully say that, when a majority of the Democratic delegates at the Louisville convention voted to commit their party to the extension of local option, so that the people of every county in the state should settle that vexed problem for themselves they were not entirely in "earnest," and moved to take that course in all sincerity of purpose. How easy it would have been for them to have taken the broader road, where a big campaign fund beckoned aid to which some distinguished leaders attempted to lure them. Had they been lacking in "sincerity" they would not have cast their lot with the forces of temperance, but would have harkened to the call of the beer and whisky trust. The opportunity for going astray was not wanting. Weaker men than Gov. McCreary and his associates would have fallen by the wayside. They deserve infinite credit for doing their duty resolutely and "sincerely," despite Judge O'Rear's sneering condemnation.

By the way, what license has the Republican nominee to question the "sincerity" of other men, when his political utterances are as mottled as a snake and as tortuous as its track pursued in shadow and in darkness? At Lexington he broadly hinted that an investigation would reveal the scandal that taints Bradley's title as United States Senator. As the beneficiary of Bradley's favor, and eager to gain his support, he stood in the Louisville convention and with uplifted hands, proclaimed that pet of the beer and whisky trust as "the greatest living Kentuckian, without a stain upon his title." Does any sane man believe that Judge O'Rear was "sincere" when that flood of revolting compliment spewed from his lips? If he has the intelligence to retain his place on the appellate bench and sufficient information to entitle him to aspire to the governorship, Judge O'Rear must know that Bradley swam to the senatorship through an ocean of scandals; that its depths were marked by boughs of beer kegs and whisky barrels each weighted with a corruption fund, that its surface was greasy with oozes and slime the exudings of the dirty lobby that hidden Beckham to defeat.

Even on his high place on the bench, swathed in the ermine of purity, he must have heard the yelps of joy when treacherous Democrats at their bidding, voted Bradley into the senate. Although blind as a bat, and deaf as a post, he could not but have seen this saturnalia of corruption, and have heard its echoes, and have inhaled its asphyxiating odors.

And yet, this self-anointed leader, proclaiming himself purer than all others, sits in judgment on his fellow men and questions their "sincerity". When evidences of fraud and malice and wrong were piled mountain high yet he walked through it and about it daily and neither saw, nor heard nor smelled.

If Judge O'Rear was sincere himself, he would not trade his reputation for intelligence and back-bone for such a mess of pottage as Bradley's support, but, rising to the full heights of his manhood, would denounce him for what he is—the compleat beneficiary of the conspiracies and corruption of the whisky people, whom Judge O'Rear so affects to despise.

Every turn of the wheel of fate, shows Judge O'Rear more and more in the light of an insincere politician rather than as a statesman.

Frank B. Russell, a beer stave manufacturer and a close friend of Judge O'Rear has been named as the head of the Republican campaign committee in Louisville.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

At Installation of Rev. Will Hopper in Pulaski Pastorates.

Rev. William H. Hopper, was formally installed as pastor of the Burnside and Pisgah Presbyterian church in Pulaski county last week. The Somerset Journal tells of the impressive ceremonies thus:

"The Pisgah Church has a history of which it is proud, as it is noted for men and women of piety and strong Christian character, but now with quickened zeal and new courage they look to the future with renewed hope."

The Commission of Transylvania Presbytery appointed to install the new pastor consisted of Rev. J. E. Pack, of Somerset, who presided at the morning service at Pisgah and preached the sermon. Rev. E. M. Green, D. D., of Danville, Ky., who charged the pastor, and Elder James Denton of Somerset, who charged the people, Rev. C. R. Blair of Hustonville; J. H. Hopper, of Perryville, Ky.; Elders O. B. Vaughn and C. P. Johnson.

A congregation that filled the house, was present to witness the impressive service when most serious vows were taken, which bind pastor and people, to work for the glory of God and the good of men. Rev. Mr. Hopper has supplied his church for the past three years while a student in the Theological Seminary.

The call for the Pisgah church was extended him before his graduation, last May, so he enters upon his first pastorate among a people whom he already knows and loves and to whom he is glad to minister in the days to come.

The second of the two events occurred in the evening at the Presbyterian church at Burnside, of which Rev. Hopper was also installed pastor. The services began with music by choir under the leadership of Mrs. O. P. Johnson, organist. Rev. E. M. Green, D. D., of Danville, Ky., presided and charged the people. Rev. C. R. Blair charged the pastor. By special invitation Rev. A. A. Higgins, a relative of the pastor, friend of the congregation and a member of the Louisville Presbytery, preached the sermon. Other members of the Commission were Rev. J. E. Park, Rev. J. H. Hopper, Elders James Denton, C. P. Johnson and O. B. Vaughn. The exercises conducted by these men were most solemn and impressive and were appreciated by the large congregation.

As the new pastor finished his course of training for the ministry last May this church, with the Pisgah Presbyterian church, this is his first pastorate and he enters the work with an evident strong determination and faith in God to serve Him.

Simple way for any family to retain the good health of all its members

The editors of "Health Hints" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which, strangely enough, is one of the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?"

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subsides inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing and, he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers, in handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

FINE MILL FOR SALE!

Don't miss this opportunity for an investment! Desiring to give my exclusive time to my farm, as I had to take it back, I will sell to the highest bidder on the premises beginning at 1:30 P. M., on Tuesday, September 12, 1911

The following real estate:

Flour mill of 75 barrel capacity, this mill has four stands of rolls of iron by steam power and makes as good flour and meal as can be made. It is located on the Q. & C. railroad at McKinney, Ky., 15 miles south of Danville and 30 miles north of Somerset, with a spur running to the mill from the main line. Without fear of contradiction I say we have the best market for feed in the state and the best located roller mill.

The mill is five stories high and has just recently been equipped with the most modern machinery from top to bottom. We have an abundant supply of never failing water. It has a large scale for weighing wagon and team, coal sheds, a good barn and has adjoining it a piece of building land with a fine eastern, a well and a concrete cellar on it. I will divide the land and sell it separately or will sell the two as a whole.

This sale will take place the day following the sale of the beautiful 150 acres farm of A. D. Root. We have six daily trains and anyone desiring to see this property can get off any of these trains at McKinney and find us without trouble. Terms made known on day of sale.
